2023-24 Student Handbook

TREATY ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We would like to begin by acknowledging that we are on the traditional lands, referred to as Treaty 6 Territory and the homeland of Metis Region #4. This land is home to many diverse groups of Indigenous peoples including the Cree, Dene, Blackfoot, Saulteaux, Nakota Sioux, Métis, and, Inuit. We also acknowledge that the City of Edmonton and all the people here are beneficiaries of Treaty No. 6. which encompasses the traditional territories of numerous western Canadian First Nations as well as the Métis people who have called these lands home since time immemorial.

NorQuest acknowledges the treaty, the land and the territories of Indigenous peoples as a reminder of:

- Our responsibility and obligations to the land and to Indigenous peoples,
- Our accountability to addressing the ongoing impacts of colonization that are distinct to Indigenous peoples and communities,
- Our work together in remembering the spirit and intent of the Treaty towards right relations.

Basic technology skills for success during your program are:

- file management skills (managing files and folders, searching/finding documents, naming a document, downloading/uploading files, taking screen shots/snipping)

Additional training and resources can be found in Online Learning Resources.

Transfer Credit

You may be eligible for credit for previous coursework at other post-secondary institutions. Students must apply for transfer credit to be assessed, and follow the policies outlined by the Office of the Registrar. More information and the Request Form can be found at: Transfer Credit

You must be admitted to your program prior to requesting transfer credit, and it is recommended that you submit your Transfer Credit Request form – found at: Transfer Credit Form-- at least one month prior to the start of term.

Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition

NorQuest College has a Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition \(PLAR\) policy that can help you earn college credits based on your current skills, competencies, knowledge, work, and experience if you are able to show that they relate to the learning outcomes of your courses. You can request an assessment once you are admitted or waitlisted. More information about the process can be found at: Prior learning assessment and recognition

Orientation

Please watch your @norquest.ca email for important details about your program orientation. Orientation provides you with an opportunity to get valuable information about your program, meet other students, and get your initial questions answered. It is critical to start your program equipped with the right information and tools for success.

Allergies

Students with allergies should be aware that labs, demonstrations, field trips, and other experiential learning opportunities contain many types of materials. Please be aware of your environment, ask for clarification as required, and inform the instructional team of any concerns.

Course Outlines

You are provided with a course outline for each course. It contains valuable information about the learning outcomes, assessments, and expectations for the course. Please review it carefully and consult with your instructor if you have any questions. Please save your course outlines in case you are applying for transfer credit at another post-secondary institution in the future.

University Transfer

Please note that certain courses are administered by the University Transfer department. These include but are not limited to English, Sociology, Psychology and Health Education courses.

While taking these courses, you are subject to policies of the University Transfer department, which can be found on your course outlines for these courses. Any questions or concerns should be directed to your instructional team.

Open Studies

Some courses are designated as “Open Studies” (O). These courses are available to students from other programs and Open Studies students. Students might choose to take Open Studies as a pathway to a credit program, for general interest, or as a visiting student.

For more information, please see: Open Studies

Attendance

Attendance is important in developing a professional work culture that values responsibility, respect, and commitment to practice. Attendance demonstrates that students have participated in the entire educational process in addition to their academic performance.

Although you are an adult learner and can choose whether or not to attend class, some learning experiences (e.g. labs, exams, clinical, practicum, and Workplace Integrated Learning (WIL)) may be mandatory. If you have questions regarding mandatory attendance days, please speak with your instructor or review the course outline.

The course outline will specify the attendance policy in each course. Take the time to learn the expectations regarding attendance in each of your courses.

In addition:

- Please treat your classroom as a workplace. Let your instructor know in advance if you cannot attend and make a plan to complete missed coursework.
- Vacations should be planned for scheduled College breaks (e.g. Reading Week, etc.)
- Please note that if your program has a practicum, practicum hours need to be completed as described in the course outline.

APA Format

All work is to be referenced in APA format, unless otherwise indicated by the instructor.

The Learner Centre (Library) offers regular tutorials regarding APA.

For more information, please see: APA 7th edition

Late Assignments

Assignments are due on the date/time specified by your instructor/course outline. Assignments received after the scheduled due date/time will be 5% per calendar day. Late assignments will not be accepted once the assignment set is marked and returned.

Pass/fail assignments not submitted by the scheduled due date/time will receive an automatic fail on that assignment.

Exceptions to the late assignment policy may be granted only in cases of extenuating circumstances, and appropriate documentation (e.g. medical note) may be requested.

Vacations are not considered an acceptable reason to hand in an assignment after the due date. Exams or assignments in other courses due at a similar time do not qualify as extenuating circumstances.

Practical tips

Your program is a fast-paced, demanding program designed to prepare you to enter a similar workplace and our instructional team is eager to assist you. Here are some tips for success:

- Attend Orientation. This session will provide important information about your program and the College to set you up for success.
- Prepare for class. Each instructor will outline a plan for pre-reading, assignment preparation, and other ways to maximize your time in the classroom and/or lab.
- Attend class regularly. Although you are an adult learner and can choose whether or not to attend class, some learning experiences (labs, field trips, guest speakers, practicum discussions) are mandatory. Please treat your classroom as a workplace – let your instructor know if you cannot attend in advance and make a plan to complete missed coursework. Vacations should be planned for scheduled College breaks such as term break.

- Engage and participate. There is a difference between merely attending class as opposed to actively participating in your learning experience. Ask questions, engage in discussions, and reflect on your learning experiences. It is always best to arrive to class on time and stay to the end of the class period. Leaving midway impacts your learning, and that of others, in negative ways.
- Communicate with your instructional team. If you are concerned about your success, or need additional resources, initiate contact with your instructional team by emailing, dropping in during online office hours, or making an appointment.
- Utilize your Student Advisor. If you need assistance navigating College services, please see your Student Advisor.
- Stay informed. Please check your NorQuest email daily, as this is the only email address that your instructional team and College employees will use to contact you. Check the student website at norquest.ca, check your MyQuest page for mark information, and frequently check your course page on Moodle. As well, you will receive regular general communications by email from the program area.
- Make a plan for success. Maintain an up-to-date calendar of due dates, and create a plan to study, review, and prepare for assignments. Ensure that you are balancing your studies with other aspects of your life to manage stress. If you need resources or assistance with time or stress management, seek out assistance from the Centre for Growth and Harmony. It is not uncommon for post-secondary students to feel overwhelmed by workload, so seek assistance if required.
- Buddy up. Meet other students in your courses so that you have someone to ask for assistance if you are away. Your instructional team recommends forming study groups with other students as a study and support strategy.

Respectful Learning Environments

Students benefit from sharing ideas with their classmates, friends, or family. Often, during the exchange of ideas, an original idea can develop into a stronger or more complex idea. This is a benefit of classroom or online discussions between students. Therefore, you should read course materials before class and arrive with questions and ideas related to the topic to be taught.

Please respect your fellow students, faculty, and program staff. You will discuss many controversial subjects and you are free to disagree with views presented by your instructor and fellow students; however, you must do so respectfully.

As well, hands-on practice in labs and external settings require students to be prepared to work with people of all cultures, religions, gender identities, sexual orientations, socio-economic status, and physical and mental disabilities. A NorQuest College, education is inclusive and our students are prepared to meet the needs of a diverse society.

Please ask for clarification and initiate discussions with the instructor if expectations are not clear. For example, talk to your instructor if you are unsure whether a learning activity is meant to be collaborative (e.g. group work) or individual (e.g. a reflective practice journal). If you have concerns regarding participation, please consult with your instructor.

It is important to note that collaborating on assessments that are to be done individually could lead to an academic misconduct report.

EXAMINATIONS

Overview

Examinations are used to assess mastery of course outcomes in many courses. Each course outline specifies the examinations you will be required to write and the passing grade you need to meet course requirements.

Booking Exams

Many courses require students to write an exam(s) to demonstrate that they have met the course outcomes.

Although not all exams are proctored, many exams must be proctored (supervised). You must write your exam using the process determined by your instructor. In-person classes will have a predetermined date, time, and location set by your instructor and will be shared with the class. For other exams, you may need to book a date/time to write your exam.

Exam bookings are available on a first come, first serve basis. You should book your exams as soon as possible in order to write on your preferred date/time. You are responsible for booking your exams well in advance (e.g. 1 month) of the exam due date and/or course end date. Booking exams too close to the exam date may mean you are unable to write your exam, and may also result in additional costs to you.

If you are unable to attend the exam, please refer to the section entitled “Rescheduled Exams and Exam Deferrals”. You should try to cancel your exam booking as far in advance as possible. You will also need to notify the proctor in order to avoid additional costs to you.

Please review your course outline for specific details about your exam and check with your instructor (or on Moodle) if you have any questions about how and when your learning will be assessed.

Missed Examinations

If you are going to be absent for the writing of a scheduled examination, you are required to notify the program office prior to the exam writing time. It is important you make this notification to avoid receiving an exam grade of zero. Please see the section “Rescheduled Exams and Exam Deferrals” for more information.

Please do not plan vacations during exams. A vacation is not an acceptable reason for exam deferral.

Late Arrivals for Exams

If you will be late for an exam, please email your proctor and/or your instructor to inform them as soon as possible prior to the exam starting. It is important you make this notification to avoid receiving an exam grade of zero.

If you are late for an examination, you may not be able to write your exam if 25% of the exam time has passed. This is in order to ensure exam integrity. If you are allowed to start the exam, you will not be given any extra time to write.

Rescheduled Exams and Exam Deferrals

A rescheduled exam is a planned request due to non-emergency situations. It is the responsibility of the student to review the class schedule and determine priorities accordingly. Please discuss any issues with your instructor directly. If you have a need to reschedule an exam, you should note that vacations should be planned for designated College breaks and are not a reason for rescheduling. Academic penalties may apply if students choose not to attend exams.

An exam deferral is an emergency or unplanned request that causes a student to be unable to write an exam on the scheduled date. Steps for exam deferral include:

1. Notify your instructor and exam proctor (if different) by email as soon as possible if you are going to be unable to write the exam as scheduled.
2. Ask your instructor if there is any documentation (e.g. medical note) required to support your request. Provide requested documentation as required.
3. The instructor, with the Program Chair's approval, will make a decision about your deferral.
4. Once a deferral is approved, you have two working days to contact your instructor to reschedule the exam. Deferred exams must be written within 5 days of the originally scheduled date. Program Chair approval is required for longer deferrals.

5. Please note that if you have already viewed the exam, it is considered an attempt at the exam and the exam has been written, as per the examination policy.

Writing Accommodated Exams

Instructions on how to book your exams and what to expect when writing exams with Testing Services can be found here.

Release of Examination Marks

While each program may have specific guidelines regarding the release of examination marks, typically, your examination marks will be released within 10 business days of writing your exam.

Your instructor will advise you should there be a delay in the release of marks. Please contact your instructor about your exam results only after the release of marks date.

Individual exam results will be discussed with students only after all class exam marks are released.

Examination Review

You may request an exam review with your instructor within 5 business days of the exam marks being released. Exams may only be reviewed privately, between the instructor and the student, and outside of class time.

For exams written on paper, in-class, you may request a meeting with your instructor to review the exam. The exam and all exam materials must remain with the instructor following the meeting; likewise, taking notes or pictures is prohibited. You may ask your instructor questions about the exam during the meeting.

For exams written online, you may request an exam review from your instructor that will consist of a discussion of overall performance. Exams will not be shared online, via screen-share, between instructor and students, in order to protect exam integrity. If it is possible to arrange a face-to-face meeting, online exams may be printed and reviewed as per the paper exam review procedure.

Each program may have further specific guidelines for exam review that may replace these guidelines. Please contact your program area for further information.

Exam-Writing Protocol

In addition to the following, your program may have other policies and procedures with respect to exam writing. It is your responsibility to review and follow all rules and expectations. Please contact your instructor if you have questions about the rules and expectations.

Academic Honesty

- You are expected to work on your own during an examination.
- Communicating with other students or sharing answers in any way is prohibited.
- You are expected to understand the Academic Misconduct Policy.

Asking Your Instructor a Question During an Exam

- Asking questions is discouraged as your proctor may not be your instructor or a subject matter expert.

Technology Use During an Exam

- Opening additional windows and/or programs is not permitted unless specified in your exam instructions.
- Calculator use is not permitted unless specified in your exam instructions.
- Cell phones are to be turned off and stored with the rest of your belongings.

- If you lose connectivity during the exam, log back into the exam as soon as possible and alert your proctor as soon as you can.
- Online activity during exams may be monitored.

E-Proctored Exams

- You are expected to follow the Student Guide - ProctorU
 - Note: If you are in a HyFlex courses, this is an opt-in, pay-as-you-go service. More information is here (link to https://libguides.norquest.ca/proctoru_services/how-to)

Washroom Breaks

- It is highly recommended that you remain in the room until you complete the examination.
- If you must leave the room to go to the washroom, you must obtain permission from the proctor. All examination materials must be left in the exam location.
- Please check with your proctor prior to writing the exam, especially if an existing medical condition exists affecting the need for washroom breaks.

Materials at Your Exam Location

- You are allowed writing materials (pen, pencil, eraser) and other materials only as specified in the exam instructions (i.e. a calculator may be permitted).
- Make sure to leave personal items in an area designated by the proctor, or, preferably, do not bring any items to an exam other than your ID and other items specifically specified in the exam instructions, such as a calculator.
- Clear/transparent water bottles will be permitted during exams unless location-specific restrictions apply.

- Special considerations need to be discussed with your instructor prior to the exam (i.e. snack for a diabetic student).

Be sure you understand and follow examination policies and procedures to avoid severe penalties with respect to your exam marks as well as an academic misconduct report.

ACADEMIC PROGRESS

Overview

- You must successfully obtain credit by achieving the minimum passing grade for each course.
- In order to progress from one semester to another, you must attain a minimum 2.0 (C) grade point average (GPA). You must also meet all course pre-requisites.
- If you receive a grade of “F” or “WF” you will be required to repeat the course.

How to Calculate GPA

For information on how to calculate your GPA, and/or how to qualify for Honours distinction, please see here: GPA

Learning Improvement Plans (LIP)

The Learning Improvement Plan (LIP) is a collaboration between the program's instructional team and the student to identify pathways to improve student achievement in certain areas. You will identify and document the areas requiring improvement and discuss with your instructional team strategies to support you.

This process is guided by the foundational principle of collaborative goal setting between student and evaluator if and when it is required.

There will be an established date and time for reassessment (if applicable) included in the LIP as well as clearly stated consequences that will arise if and when you do not meet the course outcomes.

Grade Appeals or Complaints

If you disagree with a program decision regarding grades or conduct, you have the right to appeal.

- Students who disagree with a grade are asked to first speak with the instructor. If not satisfied after meeting with the instructor, they will then discuss with the Program Chair or designate.
- Students who have concerns about their program experience may meet with the Program Chair or Associate Chair.

The appeal process for grades, academic misconduct, and non-academic misconduct are all handled by the Office of Student Judicial Affairs. Information about Academic Grade Appeals, as well as forms and procedures documents, can be found here.

If you need assistance in this process, you may contact:

- The Office of Student Judicial Affairs at: OSJA@norquest.ca
- Student Advisor at student.advisor@norquest.ca

Information about appeals relating to admissions, transfer credit, enrolment and finances is provided by the Office of the Registrar.

Repeating a Course

If you are unsuccessful in a course you will be required to repeat all parts of the course. This includes all examinations, assignments, or lab assessments required for that course. In a second attempt of the course, you cannot re-use assignments from the first attempt.

Students who are required to repeat a course must pay the tuition for that course.

You may only enroll in other courses if you have met all of the pre/co-requisites.

Academic Probation

Academic Probation (AP) is a means of identifying students at risk in their program. A student who has failed a course or failed to maintain a GPA of 2.0 in a semester will be placed on AP.

You will be automatically put on Academic Probation under the following circumstances:

- You committed an act of academic dishonesty but are allowed to remain in the program as per the Academic Misconduct Procedure
- You fail two courses (receiving a mark of F or WF) while in the program
- Your GPA falls below 2.0 (64%) in any term

While on AP, you must maintain a 2.0 GPA in each of your courses. If you fail a course while on AP, you may not be able to continue in the program.

Removal of the AP indicator is determined by each program area. See the program-specific information section for details.

Note: There may be additional requirements that need to be met while on academic probation. These requirements will be outlined by the Chair/Associate Chair or designate in the program area. Students on academic probation may require Chair approval or a permission number in order to register for future courses.

Program Withdrawal

Program and Course withdrawals may be initiated by the student, the program, or the College.

After the drop period has elapsed, you may withdraw from any credit course at any time prior to completion; however, academic and/or financial penalties may apply.

For general information, please see: Withdrawals

If you are initiating a program withdrawal for any reason, you are advised to discuss this decision with the Chair/Associate Chair to map out a plan prior to completing the withdrawal forms. Students who withdraw from the program need to re-apply and meet the current admission requirements for the program.

If a program initiates a program withdrawal due to Academic or Non-Academic reasons, you may request a meeting with the Program Chair or designate to discuss future options.

Re-admission following Program Withdrawal

Re-admission to a program after a program-initiated withdrawal is determined by the Program Chair or designate. In addition, you will need to re-apply and meet the current admission requirements for the program.

EVALUATION & FEEDBACK

It is important to NorQuest College that you receive quality programs and services and are able to find a job related to your education.

In order to determine if the College is successful in meeting both goals, you will have a number of opportunities to provide feedback on your time at NorQuest. This will primarily be done through surveys, but other formats may also be used.

Survey information is used by the College to continually assess and improve the program. Individual faculty members do not see the individual responses to the surveys. A summary of the results is compiled and provided to the Program Chair and to the instructor being surveyed.

Evaluation information is also collected for accreditation reporting purposes. This information is compiled with student names removed to ensure confidentiality.

APPLYING TO GRADUATE & CONVOCATION

Once you complete all courses and other requirements of your program, you will have the opportunity to apply to graduate and attend convocation.

Convocation is a ceremony celebrating success of graduates from all programs. It takes place in May each year at the Winspear Centre in downtown Edmonton. Our instructional team looks forward to this event each year to recognize the hard work and success of our students.

Regardless of whether or not you attend Convocation, you must apply to graduate in order to receive your credential.

Please monitor your student email and the NorQuest College website for important information about applying to graduate and planning for convocation. Please see: Applying to Graduate.

Program Delivery

You will be provided with detailed information, including a WIL Manual, as you prepare for your practicums. Spring term. A successful placement includes a strong partnership between the student, the College, and the practicum site. Each student is assigned a Practicum Agency Field Supervisor at the practicum site; and a Faculty Supervisor who is an instructor of SWDP acting to monitor the student progress through phone calls, email, reviewing learning assignments, and site visits. The instructor uses feedback from the Practicum Agency Field Supervisor’s evaluation to determine a grade of P (PASS) or F (FAIL) for SOWK 1100 for Year 1 and for Year 2 SOWK 2100.

In your program, you will complete - as regulated for an accredited social work diploma program in Alberta – 700 hours of practicum – i.e. 350 hours Year 1 and 350 hours in Year 2. You fulfill these 700 practicum hours through passing the SWDP practicum curriculum comprising the following:

In the “practicum lab” classes (SOWK 1023 for Year 1 and SOWK 2023 for Year 2), your instructor will provide details about how the practicum placement process works aiming to have you placed in an organization/agency for SOWK 1100 for Year 1 and for Year 2 in SOWK 2100 in the assigned terms (i.e. Spring May and mid July). Here, you are advised to note a couple of things as follows:

Year 1	○ SOWK 1100 Spring Semester
Year 2	○ SOWK 2100 Spring Semester

The program is offered full-time only.

This program has been designed to give you the best possible education. The courses provide instruction that will develop your social work knowledge, skills and ethical values, as well as include humanities and social science studies that enable you to enhance your interdisciplinary understanding and communication.

Schooling for a student in the SWDP entails attending on-campus daytime classes scheduled anytime between 8 am and 5 pm, Monday through Friday. In addition, students will be in placements 5 days a week from May to mid-July in Terms 3 of Year One and Terms 6 of Year Two.

There is only one intake date:

- Fall Start: August 28, 2023

Program-Specific Information

Lab Requirements

Your instructional team will provide you with an orientation to lab requirements for your program. These may include expectations with respect to dress code, required materials to bring to the lab, strategies to prepare for lab experiences, and a code of conduct for the labs.

Learning and following program lab requirements prepares students to succeed in labs and future practice.

Failing a Course and/or Practicum

If you are unsuccessful in two theoretical courses, or unsuccessful twice in the same course, you will not be allowed to continue in the program.

If you are unsuccessful in the same practicum twice, you will not be allowed to continue in the program.

Open Studies students who fail program courses and later apply to the program may need to meet with the Program Chair or designate to plan their program completion.

Accreditation

The NorQuest College Social Work Diploma Program is an accredited program. This program is accredited by the Alberta College of Social Works (ACSW) which is the professional regulatory body for social workers in Alberta. The Health Professions Act implemented social workers in 2003. Under this act, the ACSW is responsible for approving programs of study for purposes of registration requirements. The accreditation /re-accreditation process is interrelated with the Canadian Association for Social Work Education accreditation/re-accreditation process.

A student graduating from this accredited program has the overall resources and experience (knowledge, skills, and attitudes) to meet the accepted standards and registration requirements to qualify for registration in the ACSW.

WORK-INTEGRATED LEARNING (WIL)/PRACTICUM

Overview

Work Integrated Learning involves work experience under the supervision of an experienced registered or licensed professional or qualified mentor/preceptor in any discipline that requires practice-based work experience for professional licensure or certification or for program completion. Work Integrated Learning experiences are generally unpaid and the work is done in a supervised setting.

The WIL component of the program is vital to your overall learning experience. The experience allows for hands-on practice in your chosen discipline and provides opportunities for self-reflection. A successful WIL experience includes a strong partnership between the student, the College, and the WIL site.

Each student is supervised by an Agency Field Supervisor at the site, who will provide informal and formal feedback and a NorQuest MSW or equivalent Masters, RSW, Faculty instructor who monitors the student progress.

WIL Experience Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the WIL Experience students will be able to:

- Demonstrate the program outcomes listed above.
- Demonstrate critical thinking through innovative application of theory, reflective practice, and decision-making.
- Recognize expectations, workplace culture, and professional accountability while experiencing and participating in diverse workplaces.
- Reflect on future goals in relation to personal values, educational interests, and previous experience in order to develop social responsibility.
- Develop and practice competencies in professional communication, collaboration, and conflict management.
- Build confidence and workforce readiness by identifying and utilizing transferable skills.

Requirements for WIL Participation

For complete details, please consult the WIL Handbook for your program. Generally speaking, in order to participate in a work integrated learning experience, you must:

1. Successfully pass all prerequisite courses and obtain the required grade.
2. Complete all To Do List items as listed on MyQuest. This includes completing a police information check and a child intervention check (two separate processes). Should there be a positive hit on either of these required documents, you will have to meet with the Program

Chair and or the Practicum Coordinator to discuss next steps. Please note, the Alberta College of Social Workers (ACSW) are the sole decision makers for whether you can become a registered social worker in Alberta with the ACSW upon your graduation completion. It is highly recommended you first connect with the ACSW to verify any potential issues with an unclear police information check and the possible consequences to your education and planned career. This means a student can technically complete all program requirements to graduate from the program with a social work diploma but the ACSW may not permit your registration which means you will not be able to work in the field of social work. The ACSW can be reached at 780-421-1167 or toll free at 1-800-661-3089. For detailed information about the program, please see: Social Work Diploma Program

3. Complete any additional requirements as stipulated by your program.

Police Information Check

This program requires that you submit a clear PIC prior to attending WIL. Your PIC must include a vulnerable sector check if you are older than 18 years of age. It should specify the purpose of the PIC as “a student practicum with a community organization”. Any fees required to get a Police Information Check are your responsibility. For more information, please see: Police Information Check.

All students will be required throughout their enrolment in the program to self-report any change in criminal convictions or criminal charges to their Program Chair immediately. A change to your Police Information Check may affect your ability to attend WIL.

The existence of a criminal record may prevent clinical placement, program completion, and professional licensure and therefore may affect employment prospects. Prospective students who have a criminal record should discuss the matter with the program chair prior to applying for admission. All students will be required throughout their enrolment in the program to self-report any change in criminal convictions or criminal charges to their program chair or associate chair immediately. A change to your Police Information Check may affect your ability to attend a practicum.

Intervention Record Check

An Alberta Children and Youth Services Intervention Record Check must be submitted to the Faculty of Health and Community Studies prior to WIL.

The Intervention Record Check must meet the criteria specified by the practicum sponsors. Your practicum faculty advisor will discuss your placement and what is required.

The Intervention Record Check cannot be dated any earlier than six months before your practicum, so do not obtain this document until advised to do so.

You can apply for this document through Edmonton and Area Child and Family Services Authority located at 1100-10055 106 Street NW, Edmonton (inside the HSBC building).

For more information, please see: Work, Practicum and Clinical Requirements

Additional WIL Requirements for International Students

International students are required to have a Co-op work permit in order to participate in their WIL experience in the community. Students are responsible for ensuring that they have a valid Co-op work permit prior to the WIL experience start date. This permit must be valid for the duration of the WIL experience. Further information is available from the international students' office.

The Process

Students are not to contact potential WIL sites, as these must be arranged by the College. You will be provided with detailed information, including a WIL handbook and orientation, as you prepare for your WIL experience. WIL experiences will be coordinated by the College.

You may share placement ideas or connections you may have that you want to share with the Practicum Coordinator to further explore possibilities. Please plan for these conversations in the Fall term to ensure a timely process for the Spring practicum setting as there are several processes and documents that need to be in place before a student can enter an approved practicum placement. WIL experiences will be coordinated by the College.

The steps are as follows:

1. Complete the To Do List items.
2. Complete a WIL/Practicum Request Form (and HSPnet Consent form) to initiate the WIL process.
3. Complete and sign the WIL Student Agreement and any other required documentation.
4. You will be notified of the WIL site that you have been assigned to once the arrangements have been finalized.
5. Read all information found in the WIL handbook and/or the Moodle WIL/practicum course including the course outline, prior to starting the WIL experience.
6. Track hours, follow the attendance policy, and complete evaluation forms and any required assignments during your WIL experience according to stated deadlines.

More details are in the Social Work Diploma Program WIL Handbook.

WIL Student Responsibilities

1. Review the information contained in this handbook and the course outline.
2. Review Moodle information regularly as per program requirements.
3. Continue to check MyMail regularly.

15. Initiate conversation with the primary preceptor regarding concerns achieving goals due to the setting and/or the preceptor(s) relationship. Involve your NorQuest Instructor as needed.
16. Recognize her/his knowledge, skills and abilities, limits of responsibilities, legislative authority and supervision requirements, and act to obtain appropriate supervision if necessary.
17. Enter practicum hours worked on the log sheet and have the log initialed by the supervising physical therapist at the end of the work.
18. Participate with the primary preceptor in midterm and final evaluations.
19. Upload Midterm and Final Evaluations (self-evaluation and preceptor evaluation), Log Sheet, and Skills Checklist into Moodle, submitted within 1 business day of practicum completion.

REQUIREMENTS TO PASS WIL

All students must complete the following in order to successfully pass their WIL experience.

- Pass the Social Work Field Education Laboratory course as a prerequisite to the practicum course
 - Attend Practicum Orientation, and all scheduled Integration Seminars (see course outline)
 - Complete all required hours of practicum
 - Complete and present the Reflective Learning presentation (see course outline)
 - Complete and submit all required practicum related documents

 2. Complete the required WIL experience hours as per program requirements. Hours must be verified by the preceptor.
 3. Complete the learning activities as outlined in course outline/Moodle.

WIL Hours

Hours will be assigned according to the policy for each site, in addition to College and Employment Standards. The student will work the same shifts as the preceptor/mentor/supervisor/instructor, but may be supervised by another person in that role. Students may be required to work weekends, evenings, nights, holidays, or a combination of shifts. The site may be responsible for choosing one or more WIL preceptor/mentor/supervisor(s).

When calculating hours, do not deduct time for breaks or lunch. For example, working 0700-1900 would be a 12-hour shift and recorded as such. Round time to the nearest 15 minutes.

Students will complete 2 WIL experiences (practicums) with the following number of hours:

1. Practicum I - 350 hours
2. Practicum II – 350 hours

WIL Assignments and Evaluations

All WIL assignments should be submitted in Moodle by the deadline indicated. Failure to do so may result in a grade of zero.

It is the student's responsibility to submit the final evaluation (and hour log) by the deadline indicated by the program. Students will submit the documentation as per the program instructions. See instructions on Moodle and in the course outline. Failure to submit the required documents on time may cause the student to fail the WIL experience, regardless of the final evaluation results and hour log total.

Please ensure all pages in the WIL experience Final Evaluation are filled in completely and initialled where indicated. The final page must be signed and dated by both the student and the Preceptor(s) to be valid.

The hour log must also be signed and dated by both the Preceptor(s) and the student to be valid.

Scanned copies of the documents are accepted. Multiple individual files, or pictures will not be accepted. Please ensure all pages are complete and visible in the scan.

WIL Evaluation

The WIL Evaluation provides feedback to the student regarding their performance throughout a WIL experience and helps College staff assess the student's overall competency in the course. WIL site feedback is solicited for the purpose of obtaining information that the student can use in future WIL experiences or other self-development opportunities.

When to Complete

The WIL evaluation will be completed by the midpoint and the end of the WIL experience. The purpose of the midpoint evaluation is to ensure that the applicable skills are being covered and that any areas in need of further development are identified. A final evaluation is completed at the end of the practicum experience.

Who Completes the Evaluation

The preceptor that supervised the student for the most hours should complete the midpoint and final evaluation. All evaluators must initial and sign the evaluation where indicated. It is recommended that the evaluation is discussed and completed with the student. The student is also to complete their own self-evaluation for midpoint and final prior to the meeting with the preceptor, these self-evaluations should be used to guide discussions with preceptors. The student is responsible for submitting the midpoint and final evaluations (self-evaluation and preceptor evaluation) to their instructor in Moodle. If a therapy assistant was the main preceptor, the lead therapist must also sign off on the evaluation.

What information should be provided

The preceptor/mentor/supervisor/instructor will evaluate the student's overall performance against specific performance objectives using the following rating scale:

4	The student is able to perform this task competently or demonstrates this behaviour consistently; the student is able to work independently.
3	The student meets expectations in this area, but requires more experience and/or confidence. The student sometimes requires assistance or direction, but commonly shows skill in this area.
2	The student consistently performs below expectations in this area and/or requires significant support to complete the task or demonstrate the behaviour. The student requires further training and/or experience to be competent in this area.

1	The student has not learned or attempted to learn the skills required for this task or behaviour. The student requires significant further training/experience and is not workplace-ready in this area.
n/a	This task or behaviour does not apply to this area.

Specific examples should be provided if a performance objective is rated at a performance objective is not met or requires more experience. If there are any concerns regarding the student’s skills or progress, the preceptor/mentor/supervisor/instructor should notify the site supervisor and designated NorQuest staff as soon as possible.

ATTENDANCE DURING WIL

All scheduled work experience days/practicum are compulsory. Student absence may jeopardize meeting WIL hour requirements and being able to demonstrate competencies. If a student does miss time at a WIL site, there may be non-academic penalties as stipulated by the program area up to and including withdrawal from the WIL experience. Students who miss time from their WIL experience may be required to meet with the Chair or Associate Chair prior to continuing.

Depending on specific program requirements, students may be required to make up/reschedule the time missed. However, students cannot work more than what the site allows within Labour Standards and students cannot work without supervision.

In some circumstances students may also be required to provide a medical documentation to support their absence.

Reporting an Absence during WIL

If you will be absent from a scheduled work experience day, you are required to notify your preceptor by phone or email (depending on the agreed upon method) at least 1 hour prior to the start of your shift.

You must phone or email the following information to BOTH the WIL site and NorQuest program:

- Student Name
- Student ID
- Program/Course
- Facility/Unit
- Instructor/Preceptor/Supervisor's Name

Students will email or phone their practicum instructor to report your absence to NorQuest College.

Students should use the process and the contact information provided by the WIL site to report absences.

Successful completion of the WIL experience

In order to be successful in the WIL experience:

1. Students must consistently demonstrate the competencies and the knowledge identified in the evaluation.
2. Students must successfully complete the required assignments.
3. Students must complete the required hours.

Students will receive a Pass/Fail grade for their WIL experience. Final grades are assigned by NorQuest staff and not the site.

WIL HEALTH AND SAFETY

NorQuest strives to provide safe WIL opportunities for students. Sites participating in WIL experiences must meet safety standards and have adequate supervision as well as policies related to health and safety.

Should there be an incident that requires emergency care, call 911.

If a student is injured during their shift, both the student and the site are required to immediately inform the NorQuest College practicum instructor.

WCB Coverage (NorQuest Alberta Students)

NorQuest College is responsible under the Worker's Compensation Act for determining a student's WCB eligibility prior to the WIL experience and for informing the student if eligibility is not available.

There is no cost for sites participating in the WIL experience. NorQuest students are considered workers of the Government of Alberta and are covered through the Workers' Compensation Board-Alberta while in class and while placed with Alberta employers for a WIL experience. A student coverage fact sheet can be found here on the WCB-Alberta website.

NorQuest College may purchase other student accident /injury coverage for students who do not qualify for Alberta WCB student coverage.

Students that are not eligible for WCB Alberta coverage may need to make alternate arrangements (added to the students' To-Do-List). A WIL experience may not proceed until WCB eligibility is determined.

What to do in case of an injury or other medical situation

NorQuest College is responsible under the Worker's Compensation Act for reporting a student injury/incident and must provide students with information regarding the reporting requirements in the event that an injury/incident should occur. This applies to all students, full time and part time, credit and non-credit, who are registered and/or attending post-secondary studies in Alberta.

The Incident/Injury reporting process is as follows:

2. Report the incident/injury to your preceptor/mentor/supervisor/instructor and program area as soon as possible.
3. Student must complete the Worker's Compensation Board (WCB) – Alberta Worker Report of Injury Form and submit to program area within 24 hours. NorQuest staff will complete the Employer Report of Injury Form and submit both forms to WCB within 48 hours.

Assistance for completing the Worker Report of Injury form is available from the Centre for Growth & Harmony at NorQuest College, by calling 780.644.6155 or contacting wellness@NorQuest.ca.*
