LEARNERS SERVED BY NORQUEST COLLEGE

21,162

STUDENT DIVERSITY

35% from outside greater Edmonton area
65% from greater Edmonton area

38
post-secondary career credentials
8 foundational programs

12,112 full-time and part-time credit students
9,050 non-credit or continuing education students, including assessment examinations
938 clients served by the Alberta Indigenous Construction Career Centre

1,634 graduates from credit programs

7,692 Full-Load Equivalents (FLE)*

62%
Female
32%
Male (credit students)

114 countries of birth
78+ first languages spoken on campus

28 average age of credit students
55% age 25 and over
45% age 24 and under

831 credit students self-identify as Indigenous (First Nations, Métis or Inuit ancestry)

713 students used disability services

*NORQUEST COLLEGE

2019–20 Academic Year | Published January 2021

*FLE is a measure used to make comparable calculations across different institutions and programs. It is measured by taking the load of the student enrolled (instructional hours + practicum hours) and dividing by the full load of that program. This results in a comparable metric to be able to use across the system.
This total is an under-representation of NorQuest College credit students of Indigenous descent as it only reflects those who self-identified as Indigenous at the time of application.