SAFE DISCLOSURE POLICY

This document is the parent policy for any College or Divisional procedures. Questions regarding this policy are to be directed to the identified Policy Administrator.

Objective:

The objective of this Safe Disclosure Policy is to clearly convey the importance of protecting NorQuest College (college), its reputation, employees and assets from the consequences of wrongdoings as defined in the Public Interest Disclosure (Whistleblower Protection) Act (PIDA). To achieve this, the college is committed to upholding an atmosphere whereby employees can confidentially disclose alleged wrongdoings and where employees can disclose alleged violations of these policies or seek advice about the disclosing these matters, without retribution.

Authority to establish this policy is derived from the NorQuest College Board of Governors Policy No. 5, which delegates authority to the President and CEO to establish policies and procedures for the college’s management and operation.

Responsibility to Report

College employees are encouraged to be responsible and report suspected and actual cases of wrongdoings should they become privy to information regarding these wrongdoings.

Disclosure of Wrongdoings

Employees of the college may, where done in good faith, confidentially seek advice about disclosing or disclose alleged wrongdoings as defined in the PIDA without risk of retribution.

Refer to the Safe Disclosure Procedure for details.

Violations: Employees are responsible for adhering to the Public Interest Disclosure (Whistleblower Protection) Act (PIDA). Violations may result in individual disciplinary penalties up to and including termination.

Employees will not be disciplined for reporting suspected or actual cases of wrongdoing.

Definitions:

Commissioner: the Public Interest Commissioner as appointed under section 38 of the Public Interest Disclosure (Whistleblower Protection) Act (PIDA) to carry out the duties and functions as set forth in the Act.

Employee: includes a person who is engaged by NorQuest College to perform a service in accordance with existing terms and conditions of employment, employment contracts or collective agreements.

In Good Faith: means taking action based on objective evidence with honest and good intention.
Wrongdoing\(^1\) means:

- A contravention of an Act, a regulation made pursuant to an Act, an Act of the Parliament of Canada or a regulation made pursuant to an Act of the Parliament of Canada;
